12:00-5:00: Fiddlers and other musicians from around the state will take the stage, fiddling, picking, and strumming providing an exceptional afternoon of musical entertainment.

12:00-5:00: Artisan demonstrations and craft fair, local food vendors, children's activities, tour of Museum exhibits, and the movies "Stump to Ship" and "In the Blood" showing in the Reception area. The Forestry Department will be on hand to pass out information and "children's giveaways."

If spring weather arrives on time, fresh fiddleheads will be available for purchase.

12:00 Sound Stage: Emcee for the event, Chris Drew, will have the honor of introducing our field of fiddlers/musicians who will play until 5:00 with a short break at 2:00-2:30.

12:00-2:00: Bring your best fiddlehead dish to be entered for taste testing for the "Cast Iron Cook Off"

2:00: Judges will choose two dishes whose chefs will compete for title of "Cast Iron Chef"
Competing Chefs will be given a basket of various "mystery" ingredients, including fiddleheads, cast iron fry pans, cooking surface, and approximately 10 minutes to create an innovative, scrumptious, edible dish. Our worldly food critics will sample and critique each dish with the winner receiving the:

"Cast Iron Fry Pan Award" and title of "Cast Iron Chef 2015"

2:30: Fiddlers/musicians will take to the sound stage again, playing until 5:00

Donations-only Event! No admission fee to the Patten Lumbermen's Museum, Sound Stage, or the Cast Iron Cook-off. Donations gathered by the Bucket Brigade will support The Patten Lumbermen's Museum Endowment Fund.
